Individual Member Benefits

1. Having the priority in attending our continuous professional training activities including seminars, talks and workshops, which are always on high demand, at a discounted member price;

2. Enrolling in courses offered by our affiliates at a discounted rate;

3. Receiving first hand information on products, codes and standards and other initiatives developed by the TMA;

4. Being invited to conferences, forums and other major events organised by international, regional and local professional associations;

5. Meeting and mingling with peers in the industry, and expanding your personal as well as your business network;

6. Joining our social activities from time to time;

7. Viewing job vacancies posted by our Institutional Members after logon to “Member’s Corner” on our website;

8. Receiving our regular e-newsletter and market information;

9. Merchant offers (Please login to your account for details)